

Ethos Specialty Clean Tech- Casualty

SUMMARY

Ethos Specialty takes an engineering approach to providing Casualty solutions to our distribution partners and their small-middle enterprise (SME) Clean Tech clients. Our underwriting team has an in-depth understanding of the technology that underpins the global economy's transition to a clean energy future. Through our individual risk underwriting approach our team considers the unique characteristics of each risk to tailor coverage to the insured's needs with a focus on products, solutions, and technologies that are making the transition to a clean energy future easier and more sustainable.
